Barcelona – Casa Fuster

This safari allows the visitors to discover the architectural splendour of Barcelona's modernist buildings whilst they take part in a photographic competition.

Participants are placed in different teams and provided with cameras, city maps, travel passes for public transport and a set of postcards to help them identify the main buildings in the city. Their task is to find them, have a photograph taken in front of them and put together the best collection of pictures.

Regatas' in the Olympic Marina

Thanks to the 4 kilometres of beaches and a new sporting marina, which was the venue for the Olympic yachting competitions, we can organise any kind of regattas tailored to the needs of visitors.

Crafts are for any capacity, with –or without specialised instructors and both for small or big events. After the regatta, we can enjoy a paella in one of the seaside Restaurants, to the sound of habaneras: songs that the Catalans who had emigrated to Cuba brought with them on their return to Catalonia. Their favourite drink - Cremat: coffee flambéed with rum – will put the finishing touch to the meal !

Cocktail and Gala Dinner in the "Casa Batlló

Casa Batlló is a building designed by Antoni Gaudi and built in years 1905. The ground floor, in particular, is rather astonishing with tracery, irregular oval windows and flowing sculpted stone work. It seems that the goal of the designer was to avoid straight lines completely. Much of the façade is decorated with a mosaic made of broken ceramic tiles that starts in shades of golden orange moving into greenish blues. The roof is arched and was likened to the back of a dragon or dinosaur.

Madrid – Hotel Ritz

Tapas Hopping in Plaza Mayor

A fun way to enjoy this unique Plaza and all it can offer, its hundreds of "mesones" for tapas and wine tasting and music. All and all a memorable evening and a very original way to start any type of event in Madrid. Guest will sample the Madrid night life in a fantastic setting.

Madrid Film Festival
